Agnew Adds Congratulations Football's Hall Grows by Four

CANTON, O. — There was emotion from Hugh McElhenny and a telegram from Vice-President Spiro Agnew Saturday as McElhenny, Jack Christiansen, Tom Fears, and Pete Pihos were inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

McElhenny was the only one of the four former National Football League greats who was noticeably moved by his induction.

McELHENNY, the running back who spent nine of his 13 pro years with the San Francisco 49ers, said he hadn't planned a prepared speech because "I knew as I stood before you — the emotional individual that I am — that this would happen to me.

"This is the greatest honor ever bestowed upon me," McElhenny, near tears, said. "My parents, my wife, and my children accept this honor as I do."

Lou Spadia, president of the 49ers, introduced McElhenny as "the greatest runner of all times."

"Statistics are hollow. There are no statistics that can describe the beauty and artistry of McElhenny's running," Spadia said of the man who stands ninth in career rushing with 5,281 yards.

AGNEW SENT a congratulatory telegram to Pihos saying in part, "The highly successful sports career of Pete Pihos is an enviable achievement which all sports enthusiasts admire. His renowned durability, versatility, and drive are inspirational to all young athletes."

Pihos was a two-way performer for his first five seasons

Bee Mortenson posted Kegonsa's best time with a 24:22 in the morning. Wisconsin distanceman Glen Herold turned in consistent legs of 24:46 and 24:47, while Whitewater's Tom Hoffman ran a 24:52 leg.
