Greece wants Games returned

ATHENS, Greece (AP) — Premier Constantine Caramanlis proposed Saturday that the Olympic Games be held permanently in Greece, where they originated in ancient times as a symbol of peaceful universal competition.

In a letter to Lord Killanin, president of the International Olympic Committee, Caramanlis said his proposal was inspired by the fact that recent events at the Olympics "have convinced us that acute political, and even racial antagonisms have crept into the purely idealistic realm of the Games and threaten to divert attention from noble competition to propaganda and disputes regarding national and other viewpoints."

Baseball draws its billionth fan

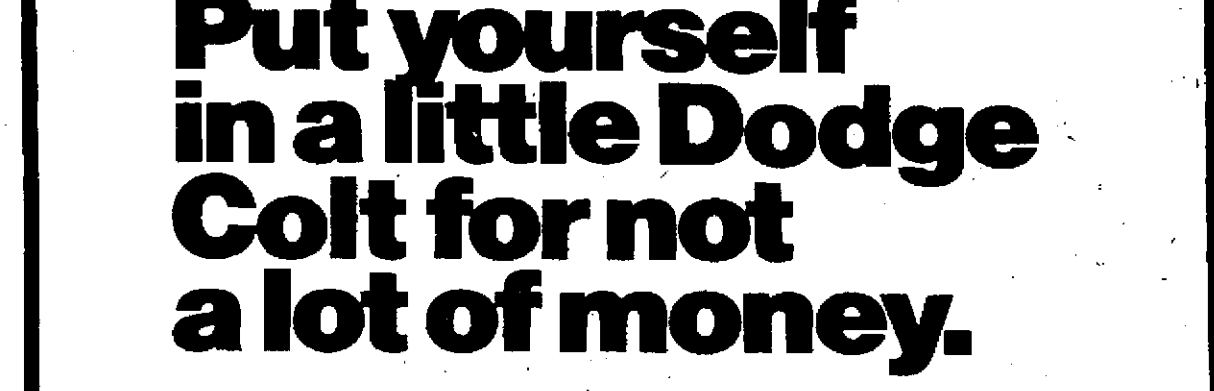

NEW YORK (AP) — Baseball attendance topped the one billion mark Friday night, but it was impossible to determine exactly who the fan was that hit the figure.

You don't say: Smith

Red Smith, New York Times columnist, on the state of affairs as the Olympic Games approaches its conclusion: "The games of the 21st Olympiad end today, and not a moment too soon. Another day or so of camaraderie and good will on the fields of friendly strife and somebody would end up with a knife between his ribs."

American canoeing hopes ousted in semi-final heats

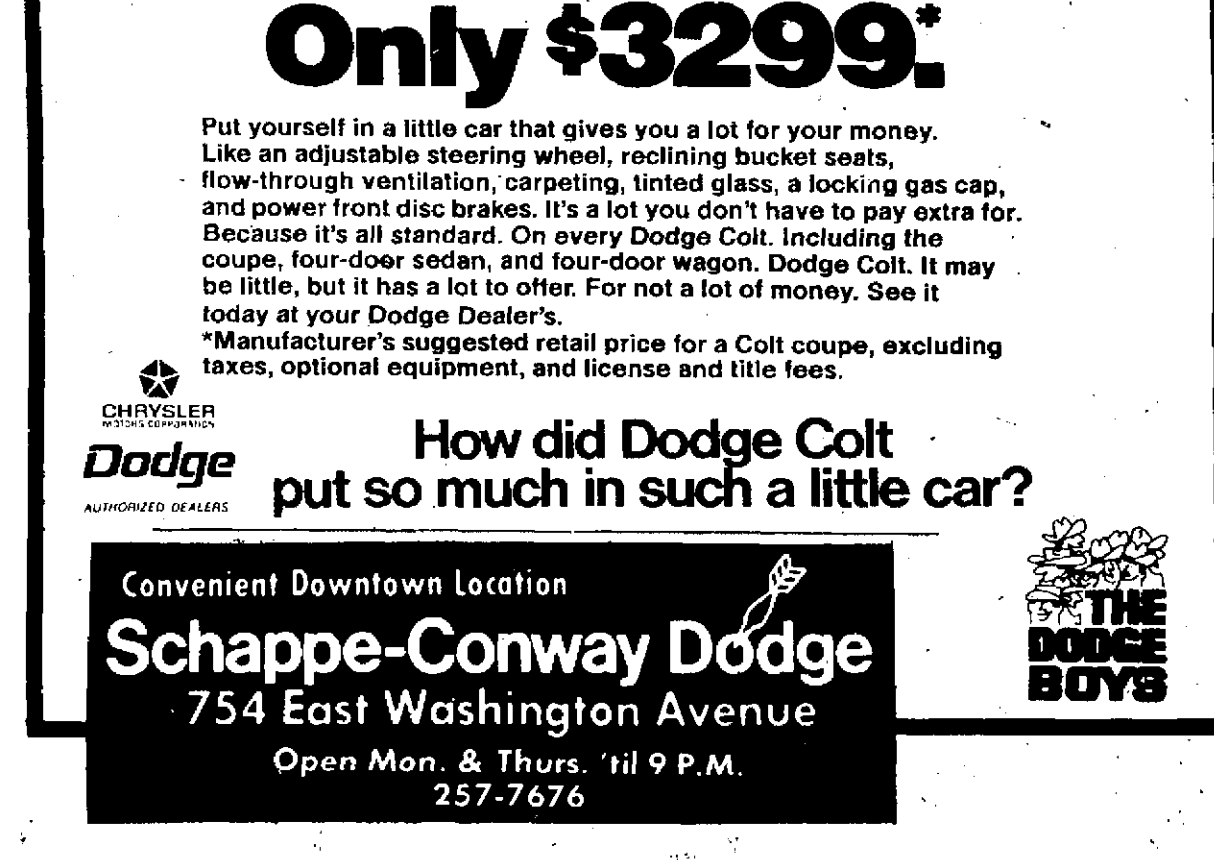

MONTREAL (AP) — The United States' last three competitors in Olympic canoeing were eliminated in their semi-final heats Saturday.

Blyleven, Texas beat Kansas City

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Bert Blyleven survived a ninth-inning uprising to pitch the Texas Rangers to a 4-2 victory over the Kansas City Royals Saturday night.

Designated hitter Joe Lahoud led the Rangers attack with a pair of singles, driving in Gene Clines from second base in the third, then scoring on Jeff Burroughs' double an inning later.

Blyleven (8-12) held the Royals scoreless through the first eight innings before giving up an RBI single to Dave Nelson and a bases-loaded walk to Tom Poquette in the ninth. Al Fitzmorris (12-7) was the loser.

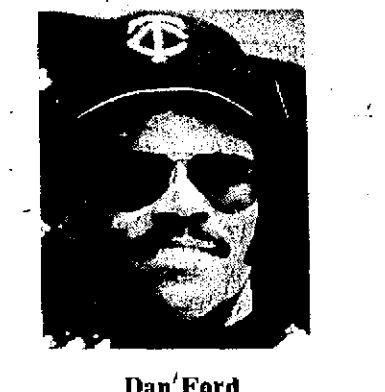

Rodriguez powers Tigers past Orioles

BALTIMORE (AP) — Aurelio Rodriguez drove in three runs with a homer and double, powering the Detroit Tigers to a 5-4 victory over Baltimore Saturday night.

Rodriguez hit a two-run homer in the second, his seventh of the season. With the score tied, 3-3, in the sixth, he doubled home a run and then scored on a single by Bill Freehan.
