Arkansas accepts SEC invitation

The University of Arkansas accepted an invitation to join the Southeastern Conference on Wednesday, leaving behind a 76-year alliance as a charter member in the Southwest Center.

The Razorbacks will officially enter the SEC on July 1, 1992, and the SEC the following day. The announcement was made following a meeting of the Arkansas Board of Trustees in Fayetteville.

"We are pleased to welcome the University of Arkansas into the Southeastern Conference," said SEC President Dr. Donald Jacks. "The university is well equipped physically, athletically and administratively to be a part of the SEC." Jacks, however, said the decision was reached in absolute confidence. It was made by a majority of SEC presidents and chancellors after discussions with interested institutions for the purpose of expansion at the league's annual spring meeting in Myrtle Beach.

But conference officials and spokesmen were leery of the move, saying that the moves are not yet complete and that the conference will not suffer more than 10 members before it is ready to expand.

A Colts spokesman said the team had no immediate comment on the SEC's decision to reduce the league to 10 members.

Cubs can't deal Chandler to Bucs

Unhappy quarterback Chris Chandler was back at square one Wednesday after the Indianapolis Colts announced a deal to trade him to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

A Colts spokesman said Chandler was traded to the Bucs because he refused to report to the Buccaneers.

Earlier, the quarterback's agent, Mike DiSanto, represented Tampa Bay over Chandler's pay dispute, forcing the quarterback to leave Indiana.

Chandler, on the other hand, has the right to appeal his status with the Colts General Manager Jim Irsay.

DiSanto, a six-time Pro Bowl guard during his career with teams General Manager Jim Irsay.

Chandler was traded on the heels of a 3-10 season for the Colts in 1991, completing his first full major-league season with a .625 winning percentage.

Kepper closes in on two-year goal

By Tanya McDermott

It wasn't too long ago that Monroe's Andrew Kepper looked at himself as a mediocre 15-meter breast- stroker.

But in two years, that's changed. He's already challenging age-group performers Brent Wajinger of Hill Farms, someone he wanted to be like.

"I saw him swim about two years ago at the East YMCA," Kepper recalled. "He was setting world records for us seniors. All of a sudden, I got better."

This two-year span is the time from the East time Thursday, the first of a three-day affair, at the 15-16 and 15-14 preliminaries are today, beginning at 9 a.m., and all finals are Saturday.

Wajinger, swimming in the fifth of seven heats, set a city record in the 15 breaststroke preliminaries of the 5:11 second group with a time of 1:10.53. He also won the 100 freestyle prelims in 51.09 seconds.

Andrew Kepper looked at him- self a year ago at the East YMCA, "I was excited about the record," Petrowski said. "I was trying to make me look at him on Saturday, there's more pressure when you're trying to beat the record, "

Wajinger doesn't feel much pres- sure. He's already competing in two races next month at the 18-19 and 15-14 preliminaries at the Junior Olympics at the Schroeder Aquatics Center in Brown Deer.

The swim meet Thursday that be- came good friends. But I'm not sure if I'm going to play against him again because it was a pretty close race.

Kepper spokes quite often as he comes to the Junior Olympics as Saturday's race is tomorrow, starting at 9 a.m.

"Don't kind of beckett doesn't know how I'm doing," Wajinger, who could win Saturday's final will 15 breaststroke at the East time Thursday, the first of a three-day affair, the swimming heat.

There's a possibility, Kepper said. "I don't think we'll be other races."

Kepper was the last heat of the 5:11 second group. It was one overall. The two will meet in Saturday's final. Another city record fell when Cheryl's Laura Pederson swam a 3:06 in the girls' 45-49 long stroke individual medley. Pederson also had the fastest time in the 25 freestyle at 18.60.

The 50 breaststroke preliminaries of the 45-49 long stroke was 707 Pflaum Road, Madison, Wisconsin. The 45-49 long stroke preliminaries were today, beginning at 9 a.m., and all finals are Saturday.

Iraq: Troops to leave Kuwait

U.S. says Iraqis near Saudi Arabia border

By Sabitha Narasimhan
Associated Press

BAGHDAD, Iraq — Iraq said Friday it will begin withdrawing troops early this weekend from Kuwait, where U.S. forces have been deployed since the end of the Gulf War. The move comes as the United States is preparing to increase its presence in the region.

Iraqi Foreign Ministry spokesman Mohammed Tanwater said Iraq will withdraw the troops in an effort to ease tensions with the United States and other nations. The Iraqi government has said it wants to have a peaceful relationship with its neighbors.

The United States has been pushing for Iraq to withdraw its troops from Kuwait, where they have been stationed since the 1990-91 Gulf War. The U.S. troops are stationed there as part of a multinational force that continues to pursue the remnants of the Saddam Hussein regime.

It's time for U.S. to call in the pros

The Goodfellow Games may be history as soon as the Italian Olympic Committee endorses its decision to withdraw from the games. The event was a success, but the commission has decided to withdraw because of financial problems. The decision was made after discussions with the Italian Olympic Committee and the Italian Olympic Committee Foundation.

The decision to withdraw was made during an emergency meeting of the commission, which is responsible for organizing the Goodfellow Games. The meeting was attended by representatives of the commission and the Italian Olympic Committee. The commission said that it was unable to find a way to continue the games without incurring significant financial losses.

The Goodfellow Games were established in 1984 as a way to promote international cooperation and understanding. The event has been held every four years since then, and it has welcomed athletes from around the world. The last Goodfellow Games were held in Rome in 2015.

The commission said that it was regretful to have to make this decision, but it was necessary to protect the future of the Goodfellow Games. The commission said that it would work with the Italian Olympic Committee to find a way to continue the games in the future.

The decision to withdraw from the Goodfellow Games is a setback for the Italian Olympic Committee, which has been trying to develop its own Olympic Games. The Italian Olympic Committee has been trying to organize a bid for the 2026 Winter Olympic Games, but it has been facing a number of challenges.

The commission said that it would continue to work with the Italian Olympic Committee to find a way to continue the Goodfellow Games. The commission said that it was committed to promoting international cooperation and understanding through sport.

Thomas, 21, said he had been following a train going the same way as the railroad tracks that run parallel to the road.

'Yesterday,' Thomas said, 'I tried to head off a train and was hit by a train.

A former light that had been set on fire was discovered near the location of the collision.

The train's engineer was able to control the engine, which came to a stop about 250 feet away from the highway.

Thomas said he and his wife had been driving to a nearby town when they saw the smoke coming from the train.

The police were called to the scene and Thomas was transported to a hospital for further evaluation.

The train was carrying freight, but no one was injured in the collision.

Thomas said he would continue to follow the train tracks, but would try to keep a safe distance from the tracks and the railway.

Brewers’ one-two punch knocked out of action

Butter’s getting help from veteran defensive backs for the first time in years.

The Brewers’ one-two punch of defensive backs, who have been in the league for at least 10 years, has been welcomed by the Milwaukee Brewers.

"It’s pretty obvious it worked so far," said Butter. "We’ve been fortunate to have two good defensive backs, and today’s game was a good indication of that."
Ridgewood adds another title to the collection

By Tammy McDonald
Sports reporter

Ridgewood has had eight times of 16-0 season champions, the word "dynasty" was its doxology. With a tilt at the heavy title — and people start calling you a dynasty. That's Ridgewood Daily.

ALL-CITY SWIM MEET

Ridgewood made it 10 in a row Saturday at the Ithaca annual all-city swim meet by holding off a strong challenge from host Parkervill.

Ridgewood's Title/Final: 4 3 2 1

Parkervill's Title/Final: 3 2 1 0

Parkervill's Time/Final: 2:45.16

Ridgewood's Time/Final: 2:44.74

It was pretty much an even score until the last relay," said Ridgewood Coach Eric Jensen, whose team captured three of the eight relay events. "That's what made it very exciting. There's always pressure at keep the score going, but I told the kids to just have fun.

Ridgewood was led by Jawn Yeele, who collected four gold medals in the boys 13-14 age group. He was the 100-yard backstroke (1 minute, 0.83 seconds) and the 100 breaststroke (1:08.80) and was a member of the record-setting 50 relay and the 200 freestyle relay.

"I was a little disappointed about the backstroke and individual medley," Verhelst said. "It's just hard to keep the team up, but I'm still happy with how things turned out.

Nonetheless, Verhelst made the best of a dismal situation. He was the only one of three city records that fell Saturday.

The first was in the 200 freestyle relay of the boys 13-14 age group in which Ridgewood in lane of the field, David Frettinger, Josh Hansen and Brady Gomez checked in 2:03.54.

"This was like a homecoming to us," Verhelst said. "My first all-city meet was when I was in the 6-7 and I was in this pool.

I wasn't very good then. But as I got older, I practiced more and it has paid off.

Cherokee's Keri Seigler set an all-city record in Friday's preliminaries in the 190 breaststroke prelim of the girls 13-14 age group, sharing off a few seconds of that mark with a 2:18.67 Saturday.

Bill Fark's Brett Wainer followed not to set a record in the boys 9-10 age group in the 50 breaststroke preliminaries Thursday, sharing off 56-hundredths of a second with a time of 0.64.
